

Interested in shaping the future of 8th Street?

Voice your ideas at a community meeting on Wednesday, October 29!

Invite to a Community Meeting on the Southern Half of 8th Street SE

*How can we make this corridor more vibrant?
Bring new shops and services to the area?
Make the street more pedestrian friendly?
Overcome the barrier of the freeway?*

7pm * Friendship House at
619 D Street SE * Wed, October 29th

To RSVP, e-mail connectbarracksrow@gmail.com

Connect Barracks Row is a project sponsored by a graduate Community Planning class at the University of Maryland, charged with developing recommendations about how the southern half of 8th Street SE can be developed to best benefit and connect the surrounding communities. For more info, visit <http://connectbarracksrow.wordpress.com/>.